V. USER RESPONSIBILITIES: All MLHS faculty, staff and students take the responsibility to

- adhere to the school's computer/Internet policy as indicated above without exception or deviation.
- refrain from bringing unauthorized software or disks, including games, into the school building.
- respect the privacy of all information on the network and on individual computers, and not attempt to read, delete or modify files belonging to other users, nor attempt to gain unauthorized or illegal access to resources here or elsewhere.

And to refrain from

- copying or transferring any copyrighted software on workstations or on the network without appropriate permission.
- intentionally introducing a virus on a workstation or on the network.
- using the computer to annoy, hinder or harass other users here or outside MLHS via electronic means.
- obscene, abusive, or threatening language, or printing/downloading such text or images, using appropriate language in all communications instead.
- downloading of files, including MP-3 files, video clips, etc. for non-school use.
- playing games on any school-owned computer, server or network system.
- bringing food, drinks, or gum around the school's computer equipment.
- Accessing social networking sites (i.e. myspace, Face Book, etc...)

Students will

- courteously quit applications and log off the network appropriately.
- courteously remember not to use finite resources wastefully, including access time on the network.
- use e-mail access responsibly and conservatively, saving personal communication for after school time as resources are available, and remember that "chat" is not allowed.
- report any equipment damage or problems using equipment or software to the teacher in charge, and make no attempt to "fix" it.

VI. PENALTIES

If a student violates any provisions of the school policy, the student:

- a. will be denied access to all MLHS computer facilities, equipment, and software for the remainder of the school year. Therefore, when class assignments require the use of MLHS computer equipment and/or software, the student must make alternative arrangements for completing the assignments.
- b. may be assigned to detention or suspended from school for a period of time, at the discretion of the appropriate administrator.
- c. may be removed from the class in which the violations occur if the majority of class assignments are centered around the computer.
- d. will be held responsible for the costs of repair and/or replacement of hardware or software damaged intentionally.

VII. ACKNOWLEDGEMENT AND SIGNATURES

I, (print student's name) _____, have read and understand the ACCEPTABLE USE POLICY for Mayer Lutheran High School and agree to abide by its terms. I understand that the penalties will be applied to any violation of the rules on the first offense, i.e., NO SECOND CHANCES WILL BE GIVEN. I also understand that I will be held responsible for the costs of repair and/or replacement of hardware or software intentionally damaged. The terms of this agreement apply for the duration of my enrollment at MLHS.

Acceptable Use Policy

The use of computer services at Mayer Lutheran High School (MLHS) is a privilege, not a right. Students are expected to make responsible, ethical, and appropriate use of computers and information services, such as the Internet, at all times. Network and computer services include use of personal and school computers and peripherals, use of the Internet, use of e-mail, and use of all associated software. Students should realize that these services are finite and costly and that such things as time, money, and hardware are wrongfully restricted or appropriated when these services are abused.

COMPUTER USAGE

Copyright Rules and Regulations

1. Everyone using MLHS computer facilities and equipment is expected to adhere to the provisions of Public Law 96-517, Section 7(b) with regard to copyrighted software. (Summary available)
2. No one may use unauthorized copies of any software on computers at MLHS. In addition, no games may be brought in and used on any computers.
3. No one may enter, use, copy, alter, or tamper with computer files, settings, or software belonging to another person or the school without the expressed permission of the owner of the files.
4. Theft or willful/irresponsible damaging of any computer facilities, equipment, or software belonging to MLHS is not permitted or tolerated.
5. No unauthorized person may use equipment, software, security passwords, or access codes belonging to the school to access or attempt to access data files, a network, or data systems either local or in remote locations.
6. Anyone witnessing the violation of any of the above provisions is expected to report the violation to the person in charge at the time of the violation or to the appropriate administrator.

Vandalism

Vandalism will result in cancellation of privileges. Vandalism is defined as any malicious attempt to harm or destroy data of another user, Internet, or any of the above listed agencies or other networks that are connected to MLHS or any of the associated hardware or software. This includes, but is not limited to, the uploading or creation of computer viruses.

INTERNET CONDITIONS, RESPONSIBILITIES, AND REGULATIONS

The use of Internet and related technologies must be in support of education and research and consistent with the educational objectives of Mayer Lutheran High School. Use of other organizations' networks or computing resources must comply with the rules appropriate for these networks. Any student using the Internet in a manner obviously inappropriate for school will face the same penalties assessed for other violations. Students desiring Internet privileges must have an Acceptable Use Agreement signed by both a parent and the student on file in the MLHS office.

Unacceptable Use

Transmission of any material in violation of any U.S. or state board is prohibited. This includes, but is not limited to, copyrighted materials, threatening, violent or obscene material, or material protected by trade secret. Use for commercial activities is not acceptable. Use for product advertisement, political lobbying, game playing, unauthorized "chat," bulletin boards, or chain letter communication is also prohibited. Other examples of unacceptable information are pornography, information on bombs, inappropriate language, pictures and communications, flame letters, etc.

SECURITY

Security on any computer system is a high priority, especially when the system involves many users. If you feel you can identify a security problem on the Internet, you must notify a teacher or administrator. Do not demonstrate the problem to other users. Do not use another individual's account without written permission from that individual. Attempts to login to the Internet as a system administrator will result in cancellation of user privileges. Any user identified as a security risk or having a history of problems with other computer systems may be denied access to the Internet. Never give out your name, address, phone number, etc. over the Internet.

WARRANTIES

Lutheran High School makes no warranties of any kind, whether expressed or implied, for the service it is providing. Mayer Lutheran High School will not be responsible for any damages individuals suffer, including loss of data due to equipment failure or user error or omission. Because access to the Internet provides connections to other computer systems located all over the world, Mayer Lutheran High School cannot control the content of the information available in them. Use of any information obtained via Internet is at the user's own risk. Mayer Lutheran High School specifically denies any responsibility for the accuracy or quality of information obtained through its services.
